AFL Legend & Brownlow Medallist

Nathan BUCKLEY

"Success in Sport & Life"

A sporting icon thanks to 15 years at the top of the AFL, Nathan Buckley's expertise is now available to those tuning in to the nation's number one football code. Following his retirement from the AFL at the end of season 2007 after 280 games with Brisbane and Collingwood, Buckley is now a regular presence in the media covering Australia's number one sport.

Buckley is a key part of Seven's AFL coverage, providing special comments and expert analysis on their Friday Night Football coverage. He boasts a high level of on-screen experience, having spent a decade on Television with the Nine Network's flagship program, The Footy Show and on Fox Sports.
